

Please start to systemitize the reviewing of tower and bird mortalitys, also institute a research program funded by the communications industry, to identifiy tower placement that result in bird mortality. Please undertake environmental reviews of all existing towers to assess their placement and design regarding migratory birds, all towers be subject to environmental reviews and to implement immediate protections based on existing knowledge, such as the voluntary tower and placement guidelines developed by the US Fish and Wildlife Service. Thank you, Diana Ross